DECLARATION OF CATHY MULLEN
PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. § 1746

I, Cathy Mullen, hereby state that I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth below.

If called as a witness, I could and would testify as follows:

1. I am a U.S. citizen over the age of 18.
2. I have a computer that runs Windows XP. In approximately March 2008, I was on the Internet when I received a pop up that had pornographic pictures on it and the URL on the pop up said the domain, advancedcleaner.com. The popup would appear every few seconds and said that I had viruses on my computer and I must order the AdvancedCleaner product in order to get rid of them.
3. As time went on, the pop ups said that I had more viruses on my computer, at one point saying I had 70 viruses on my computer. Also, the pornographic pictures got raunchier and bigger. Each time the popup would say that I had a defect and I had to buy this anti-spyware program.
4. I tried to ignore the pop ups, but they kept appearing every few seconds and would not go away. I never had a problem before this with pornographic materials on my computer, and I had anti-spyware protection at the time.
5. I had to stop using the computer because I kept getting these pop ups and my computer slowed down tremendously. I also could not let my grandchildren on the computer because I could not let them see the pornographic pop ups.

6. I never bought the product. It took several months to get my computer fixed so that I could use it again.

I state under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and accurate.
